VISIT OF THE HON'BLE PRESIDENT OF INDIA

January 16, 2024 : The Hon'ble President of India, Smt. Droupadi Murmu, embarked on a momentous visit to Meghalaya, marking her inaugural trip to the state since assuming office. Her itinerary was replete with engagements that underscored her commitment to the region's development and cultural heritage.

On January 15, President Murmu inaugurated the Meghalaya Games 2024 at the P.A. Sangma Stadium in Tura. This edition of the games was particularly historic, featuring over 3,000 athletes competing across 22 disciplines, including traditional indigenous sports such as maw-point, rah mukhrah, and wa'pong sika. The inclusion of these traditional games highlighted the rich cultural tapestry of Meghalaya and emphasized the importance of preserving indigenous sports.

The following day, January 16, the President addressed members of Self Help Groups at Baljek Airport in Tura, where she also laid the foundation stone for the new Integrated Administration Complex. This initiative aims to streamline administrative processes and enhance governance in the region.

Later, at a gathering in Mawphlang, President Murmu virtually inaugurated several infrastructure projects, including the upgraded Rongjeng Mangsang Adokgre Road and Mairang Ranigodown Azra Road. She also laid the foundation stones for the Shillong Peak Ropeway and tourist accommodations in the villages of Kongthong, Mawlyngot, and Kudengrim.

These projects are poised to bolster connectivity and promote tourism, thereby contributing to the socio-economic development of Meghalaya.

In the evening, a civic reception was hosted in her honor by the Government of Meghalaya at the Raj Bhavan in Shillong. This event provided an opportunity for the President to engage with local dignitaries and community leaders, fostering a spirit of unity and collaboration.

President Murmu's visit to Meghalaya was a testament to her dedication to the state's progress and her respect for its rich cultural heritage. Her active participation in various developmental projects and cultural events has left an indelible mark on the people of Meghalaya, inspiring a renewed commitment to growth and unity.

71ST PLANERY MEETING OF NEC

January 19, 2024 : The 71st Plenary Session of the North Eastern Council (NEC) was held in Shillong on January 19, 2024, under the chairmanship of Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah. The meeting was attended by Governors and Chief Ministers of all eight Northeastern states, reaffirming the region's commitment to accelerated development.

Shri Amit Shah highlighted the transformative progress in the Northeast under the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, emphasizing unprecedented infrastructure growth, improved connectivity, and policy-driven initiatives. He announced a significant increase in NEC's budget, with ₹4,800 crores allocated for 2022-26 and ₹6,600 crores under the PM-DevINE scheme, focusing on sustainable development.

Key discussions included making the region flood-free and drug-free, enhancing water management through NESAC, and creating employment opportunities in agriculture, fisheries, and allied sectors. The meeting reinforced the NEC's role in driving inclusive growth and ensuring a prosperous future for the Northeast.

CELEBRATION OF STATEHOOD DAY OF MEGHALAYA, MANIPUR AND TRIPURA AT DURBAR HALL

January 21, 2024 : The Durbar Hall of Raj Bhavan in Shillong was adorned with vibrant celebrations marking the Statehood Day of Meghalaya, Manipur, and Tripura. The event commemorated the historic day in 1972 when these three states were granted full statehood, a significant milestone in India's northeastern region.

The celebration featured a tapestry of cultural performances, with artists from all three states showcasing traditional music, dance, and art forms. These performances not only entertained the audience but also served as a testament to the diverse and vibrant cultures that define the northeastern region.

In his concluding remarks, the hon'ble Governor Shri Phagu Chauhan called for continued unity and collaboration among the northeastern states, expressing optimism for a future marked by peace, prosperity, and shared progress.

The Statehood Day celebration at Raj Bhavan, Shillong, served as a poignant reminder of the journey undertaken by Meghalaya, Manipur, and Tripura over the past decades, honoring their past achievements while looking forward to a promising future.

THE HON'BLE GOVERNOR'S HOLY PARTICIPATION IN THE PRAN PRATISHTHA CEREMONY OF RAM MANDIR

January 22, 2024 : The Pran Pratishtha ceremony, a pivotal ritual in Hindu tradition, involves invoking the deity's presence into the idol, symbolizing the temple's spiritual inauguration. The event was attended by numerous dignitaries, including Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who led the consecration rituals.

The Governor's participation in this auspicious event underscored the unity and shared cultural heritage of India, reflecting the collective reverence for Lord Ram across diverse regions. His presence also highlighted the importance of inter-state harmony and the celebration of India's rich spiritual traditions.

The consecration of the Ram Mandir stands as a monumental moment in India's religious and cultural landscape, symbolizing the fulfillment of a long-cherished aspiration for many devotees nationwide.

REMEMBERING NETAJI SUBHAS CHANDRA BOSE: A TRIBUTE TO A REVOLUTIONARY LEADER

January 23, 2024 : On the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, Raj Bhavan paid homage to one of India's greatest patriots, a visionary leader whose courage and determination continue to inspire generations. Born on January 23, 1897, Netaji played a pivotal role in India's struggle for independence, instilling the spirit of nationalism and self-reliance among Indians.

His famous call, "Give me blood, and I will give you freedom," resonated with countless freedom fighters, urging them to dedicate their lives to the nation's cause. As the founder of the Indian National Army (INA), he challenged British rule with his indomitable will and strategic brilliance, making him a revered figure in India's history. Netaji's ideals of patriotism, unity, and self-sacrifice remain relevant today as India progresses towards becoming a global leader. His legacy reminds us of the importance of perseverance and unwavering commitment to national integrity.

On this occasion, Raj Bhavan saluted Netaji's contributions and pledge to uphold his vision of a strong, self-reliant, and united India. His life and sacrifice will forever be etched in the heart of every Indian.
